

AFFIRMATION BY GENERAL BAR APPLICANT

MANDATORY: YOU MUST EXECUTE AND RETURN THE FOLLOWING AFFIRMATION BY FRIDAY, May 8, 2015, EVEN IF YOU HAVE NO CHANGES TO REPORT. If you fail to return the Affirmation promptly, the State Board of Law Examiners ("SBLE") will maintain an exception to your Bar admission with the Court of Appeals of Maryland. You will not receive your tickets to the Bar admission ceremony until you complete and return this Affirmation showing your current address.

Purpose: To report ANY changes in information on the Character Questionnaire (Part II of the Bar application).

Address Changes: You MUST report your current mailing address for purposes of Bar admissions correspondence, your daytime telephone number and email address on the Affirmation. Invalid addresses hinder the Court of Appeals in providing information by mail to you regarding your admission to the Maryland Bar. SBLE will immediately inform the Clerk's Office of the Court of Appeals of Maryland of your address as it appears here.

Continuing Obligation to Update Affirmation: This Affirmation is of a continuing nature. You must update the Affirmation in writing if changes occur between the date of its execution and the date of your Bar admission, including but not limited to further changes in address, telephone number or email address.
